American & Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

Late Agent of the U S Patent Office Washington, (under the Act of 1837)

76 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,

BOSTON,

AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also, in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, of ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is more successful at the Patent Office than the subscriber; and as success is the best proof of advantages and ability, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

'I regard Mr Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHARLES MASON, Commissioner of Patents.

'I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office." EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents.

"Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

GREAT Spring Opening,

AT BICKFORD'S

With opening Spring see BICKFORD comes!
He hoists no flags, he beats no drums—
And yet, attracted by his lay,
The Finny Tribe their homage pay,
From lake and river, shoal and sea,
They rush to BICKFORD'S Jubilee
Sweet HALIBUT and juicy CRABS
Delight to press his marble slabs—
Nice LOBSTERS, from old ocean green
From Portland daily come by steam
In their native salt water boiled,
And not with fresh Kenduskeag spoiled
COD, in all his flaky whiteness,
MACKEREL, dazzling with his brightness
The noble SALMON, king of fishes,
The cynosure of all the dishes,
And that which makes the palate glad,
The sweet and toothsome river SHAD;
These, with other smaller fry,
Besides the Pickled, Smoked and Dry,
At BICKFORD'S ever do abound,
When anywhere they can be found.
His price is low—his scales are just—
In Providence he puts his trust—
While nought to health that's prejudicial
Pollutes his trade, which is—of fish-all

(Evening Despatches to the Times)

News from Vicksburg to the 27th—Three Assaults Upon the Fortifications—The Place to be Taken by Regular Seige—A Total of 8,400 Prisoners taken by Grant—Also 84 Pieces of Artillery—Reported Capture of Helena, Ark', and a Negro Regiment.

NEW YORK, 1st

The Herald's Washington despatch says—

The government has no intelligence later than the 26th, when General Grant was progressing favorably. The silence of the Richmond papers in the meantime is considered an augury that nothing has occurred at Vicksburg encouraging to the rebels

The President has decided that Vicksburg may be taken by assault, but it is thought better to accomplish the object with as little loss of life as possible

The correspondent of the Herald, dating Vicksburg 22d, says

This is the fourth day that General Grant has lain around the entrenchments of Vicksburg. During that time there have been daily battles and continual cannonading. At least 2000 of our men have been placed hors du combat in several charges ordered against the rebel earthworks

During last night the gunboats and mortar boats front of Vicksburg kept up a continual fire, and several buildings were burned by exploding shells

At 8 o'clock this morning, cannonading commenced along our entire line. From every hill top in front of the enemy's works cannon played upon the rebels. Guns were dismounted, embrasures torn up, parapets destroyed and caissons exploded

The rebels were powerless to reply, as our skirmishers, who were close to the works, unerringly picked off the rebel gunners. This cannonade continued two hours, when Smith's, Carr's and Osterhaus' divisions charged through a murderous cross and enfilading fire close up to the rebel works, where an impassable ditch with sharp stakes were encountered

Our men planted their flag directly front and then crouched down behind the embankment, out of range of the rebel fire

The rebels inside of the fort could not show above the parapet without meeting death from our sharpshooters, and could only effect anything by cutting off the fuses to shells, lighting them, and rolling them out over the outer slope of the embankment

Subsequently our boys, with picks and shovels, dug a breach into one fort and thus took it

One fort was gallantly taken by storm by Carr's division

NEW YORK, 1st

Wm M Evarts, now in London, states that he feels assured the British Government will in good faith do its best to prevent the sailing of rebel pirates

Private letters from England states that Earl Russell has ordered that no more sealed mail bags are to be sent to Matamora

A Washington despatch says Colonel Ludlow reports that the rebels refuse either to exchange or parole the officers of Colonel Straight's command, taken in Alabama, about 60 or 70 in number on the ground that colored soldiers were serving under them

The rebel State authorities claim that they will be handed over to them, as threatened in the proclamation of Jeff Davis

Pending this question our government refuses to make farther exchange

NEWBERN, 29th.

On the 27th Maj. Gen Foster visited the camps of the nine months men and made an eloquent speech to each regiment. He spoke of their many victories, their matchless bravery, their heroic endurance, to the attachment existing between himself and them, which brought deafening cheers from the troops, mingled with music and the roar of artillery which gave the scene the appearance of a grand jubilee

Gen Foster told those soldiers that he could not part with them, that they must not leave him and our sacred cause at this stage of the rebellion, that he would give them all the advantages accompanying a re-enlistment including a furlough of 30 days to each regiment, and so arrange it that while one regiment departed another should return, which proposition appeared to meet with general favor

Gen Foster then called upon the nine months men for a new artillery regiment of twelve companies of 150 men each

This regiment was organized upon the spot, and officers appointed, some regiments offering to furnish as high as three companies for this new command, which will be ready for service in a short time

The desire of that portion of the 19th army corps now in South Carolina to return here and fight under their old chief, where they can have his services, arouses the sympathies of the whole department in their behalf

The numerous letters which are continually reaching Gen Foster from these officers and men now separated from him against the express orders of the President, contain appeals for their return of the most affecting character, aside from a general offer to re-enlist for the war, if their wishes are granted. Rather than have any ill feeling existing between the two departments, Gen Foster is willing to furnish Gen Hunter with two black regiments for each one of his white regiments that is returned.

CINCINNATI, 1st

The Commercial has full particulars of the operations of Grant's army up to the 22d of May.

When our army advanced upon the city of Vicksburg, it was confident of an easy victory; but the ground in the rear of the city was found so broken, rugged and wild as to be almost impassable for artillery. The rebel fortifications were discovered to be very formidable, being grass grown, showing that preparations had been made long since to stand a siege upon the land side

The main fortifications consist of a chain of forts about 300 yards apart connected by deep entrenchments, and extending for seven miles

Our loss in the assault of to-day (the 22d) was about 2000.

It was the opinion that another general assault upon the rebel works would not be ordered, but that the city would be taken by regular siege approaches.

The Gazette has advices up to the 27th, thro' a staff officer of one of General Grant's Generals, who left for Washington last evening. Three assaults had been made by our forces upon the rebel stronghold, in all of which we were repulsed.

The last assault was made by General Sherman, with 20,000 men, in which he lost 600 killed and a large number wounded.

Our outer line is within 100 yards of the rebel ranks. Our sharpshooters prevented the enemy from working their guns

The works in the rear of the city are far more formidable than those in front.

Joe Johnston is in the neighborhood of Jackson with about 15,000 men, short of provisions and ammunition

No apprehensions are felt of any serious attack on our rear

The staff officer says that General Grant has taken 8,400 prisoners and 84 pieces of artillery

NEW YORK, 1st

Philip McDermott, a printer in the World newspaper office, fell from the top story of that building last evening, and was killed instantly

LOUISVILLE, 1st

NEW YORK, 1st

A Cairo correspondent of the Chicago Tribune, under date of May 28th says

The river batteries at Vicksburg have been mostly silenced

Sherman is on the right, two miles from Haines' Bluff, McClernand is one and a half miles from the Court House in the center; and McPherson is at the lower end of Vicksburg

The report that Pemberton offered to surrender Vicksburg on terms, is confirmed. It is also believed that the reported arrival of General Banks's forces at Warrenton is true

HUSBAND CATCHING. Of a certain divine an anecdote is told, which Hook used to say exceeded any specimen of cool assurance that he had seen exhibited. A young clerical friend of his, staying at a friend's house, happened to be sitting up one night reading, after the family, as he supposed, had retired to rest. The door opened, and his excellent host reappeared in his dressing gown and slippers

'My dear boy,' said the latter, seating himself, and looking pathetically at his guest, I have a few words to say—don't look alarmed, they will prove agreeable enough to you, rely upon it. The fact is, Mrs ——— and myself have observed the particular attention which you have paid to Betsey. We can make every allowance, knowing your excellent principles as we do, for the diffidence which has hitherto tied your tongue, but it has been carried far enough. In a worldly point of view, Betsey of course might do better, yet we all have the highest esteem for your character and disposition, and then our daughter, she is very dear to us, and when her happiness is at stake, all minor considerations must give way. We have, therefore, after due deliberation—I must own not altogether without hesitation—made up our mind to the match. What must be must be; you are a worthy fellow, and, therefore, at a word, you have our free will and consent—Only make our child happy and we ask no more

The astonished divine, half petrified, laid down his book

'My dear sir!' he began to murmur, 'there is some dreadful mistake. I really never thought—that is, I never intended —

'No, no, I know you did not. Your modesty is one of those traits which has made you so deservedly a favorite with us all. But, my dear boy, a parent's eyes are sharp. Anxiety sharpens them. We saw well enough what you thought so well concealed. Betsey, too, is just the girl to be won. Well, well, say no more about it, it is all over now. God bless you both! Only make her a good husband—here she is. I have told Mrs ——— to bring her down again, for the sooner you young folks are out of suspense the better. Settle this matter as soon as you like, we will leave you together.'

Thus saying the considerate papa bestowed a most affectionate kiss upon his daughter, who was at this juncture led into the room by her mother, both in dishabille, shook his future son-in-law cordially by the hand, and with a 'there, go, go along, Mrs ———,' turned his wife out the room, and left the lovers (?) to their tete-a-tete. What was to be done? Common humanity, to say nothing of politeness, demanded nothing less than a proposal. It was tendered accordingly, and we need scarcely add, very graciously received.

—Memoirs of Hook.

TOADS UNEARTHED. Sir A. P. Gordon Cumming writes to the Elgin Courier: 'In cutting the Inverness and Perth Railway through the Lochmavandah Park on the Altyre, we have unceremoniously trespassed on the privacy and retirement of a numerous colony of ancient toads. The cutting here is from 20 to 25 feet deep, the lower part being through from 10 feet to 16 feet of freestone and red conglomerate. The interesting old residenters are found in the red freestone, about 15 feet to 20 feet below the surface where they certainly must have been several nineteen years' leases out on the land above them. They are sometimes turned out by the heavy hand pick, or the great iron crowbar, but a blast of powder, of which a vast amount is here expended, seems to cause the greatest upset in the establishment, as a shot is sometimes the means of exposing as many as a dozen of the sleepy old fellows. They seem none the worse for their long repose, but after giving a few winks at the 'new light' thus suddenly let in upon them, and taking several gasps of the unwonted air, they leisurely and deliberately proceed to hop and crawl down the line along the small water-house toward the lower fields. I have seen them in numbers, and some of the men have counted about forty at once.'

THE MONITORS. The editor of the Scientific American, who has examined the monitor Passaic, now undergoing repairs at New York, says the trial to which she was subjected during the attack on Charleston proves that our iron-clads are impregnable, and that we may safely defy all the English iron-clads and their armaments.—The Whitworth shot, or fac similes of them, in a majority of cases struck sideways, they reached the turret in all possible positions and show very poor shooting on the part of the rebels. There is no indentation on the Passaic deeper than a tea saucer, and she was the most injured of the attacking fleet except the Keokuk, which was not a monitor

THE STORE-ORDER SYSTEM. Gov. Curtin of Pennsylvania has signed the bill passed by the last Legislature, which makes it unlawful for any ironmaster, foundryman, collier, factoryman, or company, or their agents, to pay their employees, wholly or partially, in printed, written, or verbal orders. Violation of this law is declared to be a misdemeanor, punishable with fine and imprisonment, or either, at the discretion of the court.

Dog licenses are required in Portland—or prosecution follows.

The Colored Man as a Soldier of Freedom.

The conviction is forced upon us more strongly every day, that one of the main instrumentalities in terminating the present war, is to be the colored man—"the eternal nigger," as our copperhead friends would express it. The enslavement of the colored man was the cause of the war—his enfranchisement will be the means of its victorious termination. Not only indirectly, but directly. His personal services as a soldier under arms, are yet to be a vital and effectual aid to the cause of the country—to turn the scale, as we believe, against the rebels, and restore the republic one and indivisible—a free nation and a free people. The great change which has come over the public mind, within a few months, in regard to the employment of colored troops—"arming the niggers"—is astonishing as it is significant. A year ago, a proposition to put arms into the hands of the negroes, to any considerable extent, would have excited—in fact did excite—not only the bitterest opposition from the prejudiced enemies of the colored man, but was regarded with doubt and distrust by many sincere friends of the slave. Up to that time, and even later, it had been determined to fight the war out with white troops exclusively, and without the aid of the negro—without even giving him freedom, any farther than the incidental emancipations of the war, and its confiscation, might extend. Such, however, was not the order of Providence. In the councils of Eternal Justice the salvation of the Republic was not to be attained except by the emancipation of its oppressed millions. The passing months demonstrated that the strength of slavery must be taken from the rebels, and that the negro could be well and profitably employed as a soldier of freedom. Hence we see how rapidly and completely the loyal public opinion of the country has changed on this subject. Copperheads still sneer at colored troops, of course, and denounce as an outrage the "arming of the niggers"—but honest and earnest Union men hail the policy as the right and proper one for the speedy reinforcement of our armies, and regard it as the most hopeful indication of ultimate success.

The problem as to the efficiency of colored troops—whether good soldiers can be made of them—is fast receiving its solution; and few persons now doubt as to that point. Their aptitude for drill and discipline, and their willing obedience to rightful command, has been fully established, and the more important question whether they will fight, is being favorably settled by every opportunity afforded them to show their pluck. The number of good soldiers that can be recruited from the freedmen of the South, is limited only by the wants of the service. The Secretary of War says he can have from two to three hundred thousand of them within the year, and there is nothing improbable in the anticipation. They will relieve our white troops from much of the hardship and suffering of the war, —and their withdrawal as slaves from the southern plantations, to fight the battles of the Union, will inflict a double blow upon the rebellion, and a blow which it will not be long able to withstand.

We had the fortune to witness the recent review of the Massachusetts 54th (colored) regiment in Boston—its march through that city, and its embarkation on the steamer De Molay for Port Royal. Never was a regiment received in that city by a greater crowd of spectators, or with more general and enthusiastic demonstrations of welcome. Never was a white regiment treated with greater respect than this colored one. We did not hear, even in private conversation on the side-walks, a single disparaging or insulting remark. On the contrary, all were surprised and delighted at the steady and soldierlike bearing of the men, and enthusiastic in their praise. At the review by Governor Andrew, on the Common, the marching, the wheeling by companies into line, the manual of arms, and all the evolutions usual upon such occasions, were performed in a manner to draw forth the highest applause of the thousands who witnessed the scene. The drill was, in fact, allowed to be equal to that of any white regiment when it left the State. Another fact has been stated, most honorable to this colored regiment, and full of encouragement, and we can personally testify to its truth. During the march thro' the city, and after the regiment had reached Battery Wharf, where they remained for an hour or two under a blazing sun, previous to embarkation, not a man of them was seen who appeared to be at all under the influence of liquor—not one that we could perceive—(and we were near them all the time). There was no noise even, nor confusion or disturbance, in the embarkation. If they do as well in the field as in the camp and on the march, the country need have no fear of a deficiency of good soldiers to sustain the cause of the Republic.

And now for a little testimony as to the character of the colored regiments already recruited at the South from among the former slave population as well as the free blacks. An intelligent Massachusetts officer at Baton Rouge says —April 30th:

I have seen two regiments of them, and I must say that I have seen many white regiments that will not compare with them. They very far exceed my expectations. The feeling of the generality of officers here is in favor of blacks, and if we get as good a set of men as these in the regiment we have seen, we shall be perfectly satisfied. The feeling here in regard to them is rapidly changing in their favor. We look upon the whole matter as a fixed fact.

The regiment officered by 0. sck officers I tho't to be in the best order. One of them is a millionaire and some of them are worth over $200,000 each. I predict very great success in raising black troops here, and hope I may be fortunate enough to have command of a regiment of them. As to their fighting qualities, there is but one opinion expressed here, and that is that they will fight like devils, because they express but one determination, and that is that they will never be taken prisoners. They express a longing for a chance, the first chance ever afforded them, to strike for the liberty of their race.—Where is the instance upon record of any nationality of men who would not fight to the death for freedom? and you may be sure that these regiments will not fail when they meet the oppressors of their race.

A Massachusetts Battery officer at New Orleans says:

The Union people here are all against slavery. The sentiment is universal here among those who wish our arms to be successful in this terrible conflict with the rebels, that slavery should end now. I find also that there is not so much hatred here against the negro as we have at the North. I find the sentiment is universal in favor of arming the slave. * * * * I was not prepared to believe that those taken from the plantation and only drilled two or three months, as is the case with these, could do as well as they did. A number of officers of the army went with me, most of them were against arming the negroes, but all said that hereafter they were in favor of giving them arms.

Hear what a Newbern writer says, May 28d, as to the fervor with which the blacks enlist in that department:

Recruiting for the African brigade is progressing lively and enthusiastically. Quite a recruiting fever has seized the freedmen of Newbern. Recruiting offices will soon be opened at Washington and Plymouth. Four thousand colored soldiers are counted upon in this department.—There is likely to be one item of compensation to the Government for holding these posts upon the enemy's soil. It is indeed, due to the freedmen that we provide these harbors of refuge for those who escape from the rebel lines. There is perhaps not a slave in North Carolina who does not know that he may find freedom in Newbern, and thus Newbern may be the Mecca of a thousand noble aspirations. Thank God that the noble aspiration of human liberty is with us in this war. It helps us to abide temporary disaster, and is our pledge of final success. But we shall find a path stony and blood-moistened as long as we fail to have mercy and deal justly with the unoffending people who are the innocent cause of this war.

True enough—but Providence is going to compel us to deal justly by them, whether we will or no. We shall not see the end of this war until we do.

One more extract and we have done. The Washington Star, after referring to the fact that the capture of the region bordering the lower Mississippi will result in the enlistment either in active regiments or the service of our quartermaster's and commissary's departments, of three or four hundred thousand blacks in a very brief period of time—thus subtracting so many human elements of the war's successful prosecution from the side of the rebellion, and transferring them to our side, to the dismay of the oligarchy and the eventual total prostration of the rebellion—says:

Months ago we ceased to have fears of anarchy and universal ruin to grow out of the violent change in the status of society in the South, which at the beginning of the war, we thought we clearly foresaw, if the contest became a protracted one. * * * *

No three other elements calculated to have as much influence in expediting the termination of the rebellion could possibly enter into the contest as that of giving the government an unlimited supply of troops; that of depriving the rebels of the services of their millions of slaves on the Mississippi; and that of demonstrating to the satisfaction of the loyal everywhere, that freeing the slaves does not result in insurrection, universal murder of non-combatants, and utter demoralization of society as was so generally anticipated, and that it promises as valuable industrial results to the whole country as were enjoyed before the war began under the system of slavery destroyed by the madness of those who were its chief beneficiaries.

If Vallandigham is sent back by the rebels, what a chance he will have to serve the Union cause by giving valuable information about matters in Dixie. He claims to be an earnest and zealous supporter of our government, and of course will use his opportunity at the South in observation of the weak points of the enemy—His patriotism, if it be worth anything, will override any irritation at his "arbitrary arrest." It is thought, indeed, that his being sent South, ostensibly as a traitor, was a nice piece of strategy, to gain a confidential insight into Jeff Davis's plans and resources. We see Val has gone to Richmond, which will give him a grand chance to get at the secrets of the Confederacy. He can therefore vindicate the loyalty of the "peace democracy," by wooing the rebel Cabinet, and sending home facts which will be of value to our government. Will he do so?

PAYMENT OF THE FIVE-TWENTIES IN GOLD George Harrington, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, states in a letter to Hon. S H Walley, President of the Revere Bank, Boston, that the principal and interest of the five-twenty bonds will be paid in gold when redeemed. The three years 7.30 bonds will be paid in U. S. notes unless the holder prefers to exchange them for other bonds.

Prominent friends of the President, it is said, have represented to him that the ignoring of the $300 get off clause in the conscription act would make great trouble. They probably don't want to go.—Argus

The Argus is hard to please. When it was alleged that the clause was to be ignored, that paper had a terrible lament for the hardship which thus forced the poor man to go anyhow—for how could he get a substitute at the enormous prices which would be asked? Now that it appears never to have been the intention to interfere with the commutation clause at all, the editor intimates that it is retained simply to enable the President's friends to escape the draft.—The copperhead papers will never be satisfied with anything that threatens to hurt the rebellion.

A dispatch from Dayton, Ohio, states that nine of the Vallandigham sympathizers who were arrested and sent to Cincinnati some two weeks since, were released on Wednesday, by Gen Burnside, upon swearing anew allegiance to the Federal Government.

At the battles of Port Gibson, Raymond, Jackson (two), Baker's Creek (or Champion Hill), and Black Bluff, it is estimated that the rebels lost 12,800 men in killed and wounded and 188 guns.

By a recent visit to Sawyer's Photograph Rooms, in Strickland's Block, we find that he has been making extensive additions and improvements, constituting it one of the most complete and extensive establishments of the kind in New England. He has taken several new rooms, for the accommodation of his great solar camera, and for an additional and elegant exhibition room, and has refurnished the whole in very handsome style. His efforts to satisfy customers in the quality and style of his pictures have given him a large and deserved amount of patronage.

Major James Mann, Brigade Paymaster, arrived in this city on Saturday to pay the soldiers of the Second Maine—but some little delay has arisen, as part of the men appear on the mustering rolls to be three years men, and Capt. Bailey the officer who is here to muster them out did not feel authorized to do so in that condition of the original rolls. The Secretary of War has decided that the original regiment must be considered a two years regiment, as that was the term for which they enlisted. The matter will be set right in a day or two, we presume.

The Bangor Mercantile Association has one of the best and largest Libraries in the State, connected with which they have a Reading Room containing the most important papers published in this and other States. All who wish to read books newspapers or periodicals, will ascertain by calling on the Librarian, Mr. Smith, that they can be well accommodated, and at a low rate. The Association is constantly adding new books to their library, showing that it is important that those who contribute to its support should be furnished with all the fresh reading that they have a right to expect. Returned soldiers belonging to Bangor and vicinity, can, at a trifling expense, avail themselves of the privileges which this institution affords, and in no way can a portion of their hard earnings be better expended.

How to Cure Cancer.

Not long since an article appeared in the Milwaukie Free Democrat which the Providence Post thinks of sufficient importance to receive general notice. The statement of the Democrat is that some eight months ago Mr. S B Mason ascertained that he had a small cancer on his face, the size of a pin head. It was cut out by Dr. Walcott, and the wound partially healed—Subsequently it grew again, and while he was at Cincinnati on business it attained the size of a hickory nut. He remained there since Christmas, under treatment, and is now perfectly cured. The process is this: A piece of sticking plaster is put over the cancer with a circular piece cut out of the centre a little larger than the cancer, so that the cancer and a small circular rim of healthy skin next to it is exposed; then a plaster made of chloride of zinc, bloodroot and wheat flour, is spread on a piece of muslin the size of this circular opening, and applied to the cancer for twenty-four hours. On removing it the cancer will be found to be burnt into, and will appear of the color and hardness of an old shoe sole, and the circular rim outside of it will appear white and parboiled, as if scalded by hot steam. The wound is now dressed, and the outside rim soon separates and the cancer comes out in a hard lump, and the place heals up. The plaster kills the cancer, so that it sloughs off like dead flesh, and never grows again. The remedy was discovered by Dr. Fell, of London, and has been used by him for six or eight years with unfailing success, and not a case has been known of the re-appearance of the cancer when this remedy has been applied.

I have had a cancer on my lip cured this same way, after I went to about ten doctors. I kept the plaster on for above six days, putting on a new plaster every day, but I think five days might have done. There was no very great pain. Yours, BENONI BAKER

A GRIM ORDER. When Colonel Cornyn entered Iuka, Miss., the other day with dry humor, he issued an order to the citizens telling them "both loyal and disloyal will furnish forthwith corn bread for the patriot heroes of this command." The order will be obeyed immediately, as the heroes are hungry." And the corn and bread came.

The Empress of France, and all the foreign and domestic feminine nobility, are making horsemanship fashionable in Paris. Who wouldn't be a riding master?

You say you are fighting for liberty. Yes you are fighting for liberty! Liberty to keep four millions of your fellow beings in ignorance and degradation—liberty to separate parents and children, husband and wife, brother and sister—liberty to steal the products of their labor, exacted with many a cruel lash and bitter tear—liberty to seduce their wives and daughters, and to sell your own children into bondage—liberty to kill these children, with impunity, when the murder cannot be proved by one of pure white blood. This is the kind of liberty—the liberty to do wrong, which Satan, chief of the fallen angels, was contending for when he was cast into hell.

I have the honor to be, very respectfully, your most obedient servant,

(Signed) D. HUNTER,
Major General Commanding.

It is said that an expedition is to be sent into the interior of Florida.

A British blockade runner, while trying to get out of Charleston, was discovered on the night of the 20th, and sunk before she could gain the bar. Her officers and crew are supposed to have perished.

On the 23d another steamer was discovered and fired into. She received under a heavy fire, and sunk in the main channel off Morris Island. Both vessels had large cargoes.

All furloughs have been stopped in Hunter's Department.

It was reported that some regiments had been ordered to Virginia, but that General Hunter had refused to let them go, and sent a protest to the President.

The Monitors were still laying off Edisto.

The Ironsides was opposite Fort Sumter.

NEW YORK, 1st

An extra of the Havana Diario of the 26th, received per steamer Sheldrake, reports the arrival at Havana of the French war steamer Darien from Vera Cruz with important despatches from Gen. Forey, announcing the occupation of Puebla by the forces under his command. The prisoners include 2 Gen Ortega, and 26 other Generals, 900 minor officers, and 17,000 men.

It appears that on the 16th Gen Forey opened with heavy artillery on the fort "Fotimepuacan," on on the 17th a breach was made. The French troops then moved to the assault, and after a desperate resistance entered the Plaza, when Gen Ortega surrendered unconditionally.

On the 20th one division of the French army started for the City of Mexico.

NEW YORK, 1st.

The steamer Sheldrake from Havana, May 26th, arrived this morning.

It was reported at Havana that the yellow fever had broken out among the French troops in Mexico.

St Domingo dates of the 14th state that five chiefs of the February revolution, were recently executed.

Laguayra dates of the 7th state that the war seemed likely to break out again.

From Honduras it is stated that that State is preparing to aid Salvador in the war against Guatemala.

Four rebel sloops with cotton had arrived at Havana.

NEW YORK, 1st

The following are additional particulars of the Mexican news:

On the 8th instant Gen Comonfort, who had received reinforcements, tried to attack in the rear of the forces, and General Bazaine's division opposed him, resulting in his complete defeat.

The battle took place near San Lorenzo, Comonfort losing 2500 men in killed, wounded and prisoners and seven or eight rifled cannon and a greater part of his equipments and munitions of war.

It appears that Comonfort's attack had for its principal object to favor the entrance into Puebla of a large convoy of provisions and ammunition. General Forey had received in time part of the heavy articles he expected, and already, on the 15th, had mounted a battery opposite fort of Lolimichuapan, one of the most dreaded in Puebla. On the same day the artillery began to fire, and by the 17th a breach had been made. Forey then commanded an assault to be made, but resistance immediately ceased. Part of the French army then entered the town, and Ortega surrendered without conditions, with all his forces, including all of his artillery and equipments. There would be left in Puebla only a necessary garrison to prevent its being molested by guerillas, and the rest of the French forces would march for the capital. The number of prisoners is as already stated.

WASHINGTON, 1st.

Count Fandebruno and M. Olivari, the Captain and first officer of the Italian frigate San Giovanna, now lying at Philadelphia, are visiting Washington, and accompanied by the Italian Minister, were today presented to the President. They were in full uniform.

The President today pardoned Jacob Varney, convicted in the District Court of Western Virginia, for mail robbery, in April 1862, and sentenced to imprisonment in the Washington Penitentiary for a period of three years. Postmaster General Blair, the District Attorney and others all joined in the petition for pardon. He has a helpless wife and 10 children.

The 3d Brigade of Pennsylvania Volunteers, Colonel Fisher commanding, who have been performing guard duty in Washington, joined the head quarters of its division tonight, on the Virginia side. General Crawford will probably assume command of the division, tomorrow. The men were in fine spirits and cheered as they passed through our streets, glad to be again in the field.

Captain Auchmarly, who was with General Merrill in all the battles of the Peninsula, is General Crawford's Acting Adjutant General and Chief of Staff. It is believed this favor to division of Pennsylvania would be increased to its full number by returned nine months volunteers if they were called for.

NEW YORK, 1st.

The Post prints the following special despatch from Washington:

Washington 1st.

Admiral Porter's despatch, published this morning is the latest received by the government from Vicksburg. It is rumored on the street that General Lee is moving with his army towards the Shenandoah valley, but there is probably no truth in the report.

The story set afloat of a new invasion of Kansas by General Price, and the inadequacy of the national force to resist it, has no foundation. In fact, there are 40,000 enrolled militia in the State of Missouri, ready to act.

Generals Herron and Blunt's commands are in Kansas, and the Indian county, which amounts to nearly 25,000 men, and it is believed they can take care of Price.

Fort Gibson is 225 miles or more from Leavenworth City, south, and about 100 miles west of Little Rock. Neither Kansas nor Leavenworth is in danger.

CAPE RACE, 1st.

The steamship America, from Boston via Halifax for Liverpool, was boarded off this point yesterday, and the latest news from New York placed on board.

PHILADELPHIA 1st.

The meeting tonight in Independence Square to protest against the arrest of Vallandigham was largely attended; about 10,000 persons were assembled. Judge Ellis Lewis occupied the chair, and speeches were made by ex-Senator Bigler, ex-Congressman Biddle, Chas I—Ingersoll and others. Mr Ingersoll counselled perfect obedience to the laws and the constitutional authorities. The proceedings were very orderly. The name of Vallandigham was repeatedly cheered on its repetition by the speakers, as was also that of General McClellan.—Resolutions were adopted, declaring the arrest and banishment of Vallandigham, a violence to which the people will not and ought not to submit; that the remedy is in the ballot box at the coming election, when the State authority will be restored to the hands of the democratic party; that it is the firm belief that the course of the authorities at Washington is by military aggression to provide an apology for the further invasion of our liberties; and that it is only to the ballot-box that we can look for permanent relief. The meeting adjourned at half past ten.

The 10th New York Artillery has been ordered to Washington. Part of the regiment has already gone.

The [illegible] understanding is that General Fremont has been elected President of the Pacific Railroad.

A Washington letter in the Commercial states that the reported advance of the rebels had no other foundation than the transfer of a single division to Culpepper, and that Stuart is making preparations for an extensive cavalry raid into Maryland or Pennsylvania. General Hook's division of the rebel army, it is said is to support the advance part of the way.

CHICAGO, 1st.

At an immense meeting held on 'Change this morning, Gen Fuller announced the great necessity for funds to send supplies to the wounded at Vicksburg. Nearly $6000 were raised. The committee of the Buffalo Board of Trade gave $500, and the Oswego Board the same. Gen Walbridge, in behalf of the New York committee of the Produce Exchange, gave $500. Great enthusiasm prevailed.

CAIRO, 1st.

The Memphis Bulletin of May 30th says the expedition from Germantown under Colonel McCrillis attacked a rebel force of 2500 men at Sanctobia on the 25th, and drove them south of the Tallahatchie, with a loss of six killed and three wounded.

Helena, Ark. dates are to the 27th. A reconnoitering expedition had a sharp skirmish on Little Brook road on the 25th, with the rebels. Our loss was 5 killed and 23 wounded. The rebel loss was 2 killed and 8 wounded.

One hundred and eighty rebel officers and 4200 privates arrived here to-day. The officers will be sent to Sandusky.

ST. LOUIS, 1st.

The second installment of recalcitrants took their departure to Dixie tonight. They numbered 17, among whom were Phillip Cozen, J. H. Kennett, Wm Knight, Dr W. Golding, Mrs Polk, wife of ex-Senator Polk, and her two daughters, Mary and Eliza, and others.

They were all under the charge of Captain J. H. Davis of the 1st Missouri Cavalry, who will transfer them through our lines under flag of truce and deliver them to some responsible rebel authority.

Prisoners thus passed through the lines are forbidden to come within the lines of the United States forces during the existence of the rebellion except by permission of the Secretary of War, under penalty of imprisonment during the war and such other punishment as may be imposed by the military authorities.

VALLANDIGHAM ON HIS BANISHMENT. The Murfreesboro correspondent of the Chicago Tribune, in detailing Mr. Vallandigham's forced interview with the rebels, says:

"In a conversation with your correspondent, he candidly admitted that the dealings of the Government with himself were necessary and justifiable. If the Union was to be restored by War, he admitted that in that case the Government would be obliged to use all the physical force of the loyal States, and could tolerate no opposition. This, however, he declared would be at the expense of the true principles of our Constitution; whereas, he thought that by the adoption of his plan, and only might its principles be conserved, but the Union of States ultimately restored."

It would appear from this that Mr. Vallandigham regards his arrest and banishment as consistently required by the position of the Government in endeavoring to subdue the rebellion by force of arms, whereas the objection to these measures he thinks can logically come only from those who approve Mr. Vallandigham's peace policy. Those who have been in a hurry to censure the Government on account of this case, may be profited by learning how their victim himself regards it.

THE SITUATION. The Washington Chronicle of Saturday has the following paragraph in large type:

General Grant is progressing well in the siege of Vicksburg. A despatch was received from him at headquarters, yesterday, that he was getting along very satisfactorily and he felt himself amply competent to take care of any force that might come in his rear. The reports of his death which have been industriously circulated by secession sympathizers in Washington, have no foundation. Repeated assaults have been made upon the rebel works, and at every trial something has been gained. The rebels are losing heart every day. They have lost all their field artillery, and what is more we have gained it.

POOR RICHARD'S

EYE AND EAR WATER.

This is the Best Preparation in the World!

READER are you aware that every time you think, speak or act, you draw on your eyes for strength to do so? Now you are debtor to them and if they have not arrested your body and shut it up in the prison of disease: remember they most assuredly will if you do not satisfy their claim (which is a small one) for all the services they render to you continually They are crying to you for help every blood streak is a voice. Hear their cry, and save yourself by saving them. Give them a drink o POOR RICHARD'S EYE WATER, Morning and Night. This is all they ask, and they will positively keep your body out of the prison House of disease They do not want to lose time in explanations. Try them and prove here By faithful perseverance, Deafness can be cured and prevented — Bathe both eyes and ears.

A Remarkable Cure in Bangor

I, W J PRITCHARD do certify that my wife Esther S, has had Weak Eyes from childhood, caused by measles. One year since a lump appeared on the lash of her eye It increased to the size of a large pea Becoming somewhat alarmed about the progress I was making I took my wife Mrs M G BROWN at the Exchange She told me she could remove it and further strengthen her eyes. Mrs. B. applied her medicine at seven o'clk in the evening, and at nine o'clock the lump was gone. We could see no more of it My wife can now see people walking on the other side of the street which she could never do before. She has always had headaches when riding in a carriage. Yesterday when riding in a carriage, she had no return of headache. My own eyes were treated two or three times by Mrs. Brown I find them much strengthened W H PRITCHARD

UNIVERSAL

[illegible]

RAISES its real claims to the confidence of the public by its perfect simplicity and freedom from every component which in any way places restraint on its use, Day or Night by Old or Young, but to find the real secret of its true character had resulted to which thousands can testify, by its being made the Pocket Bedside or Nursery Companion of all, and the enemy to all Throat and Lung Complaints, by using it every hour, if necessary, or when there is the least tickling in the Throat, or disposition to Cough. By such freedom of use it

CURES

Coughs,
Colds,
Sore Throat,
Bronchial Complaints
Hoarseness

and all such as when neglected end in

CONSUMPTION

To Public Speakers and Singers it is most valuable as it goes to the foundation of all the Throat and prevents the prostration which follows great exertion

As a Soothing Syrup its simplicity calls for special attention as the most delicate infant may take it with the greatest freedom

[illegible]

This Preparation, by its splendid results has shown the great necessity of a true Nervous and Spasmodic Remedy which goes to its work on all such complaints, completely relieving the pains, and leaving no stain of debility behind

As most complaints of this nature proceed from inward causes they are reached only through the stomach and in most of them, time and money is wasted by the use of Liniments and Lotions

Let this preparation be fairly tested and it will be found worthy the name and fame of a true

ANODYNE!

IT CURES

Neuralgia,
Rheumatism
Gout
Tooth Ache,
Ear Ache,
Nervous Head Ache
Distress after eating
Fits,
Hysteria,
Nervousness
Spinal Complaint,
St. Vitus Dance,
Cholera Morbus,
Pains in Stomach and Bowels

also the chief of all causes of disease and Insanity

LOSS OF SLEEP!

☞ To the Sleepless Invalid it gives the most refreshing sleep.

To Females, suffering the pains of Monthly Menstruation, it completely relieves, while Nature's work is undisturbed This is of great importance, as from this scourge dates most if not all wrecks to the Nervous System, and Chronic Female Complaints.

For Stomach, or Tape Worms, it is a sure remedy

For children, when Teething, it completely soothes the pain by diluting with milk and rubbing the Gums When very severe give it in 5 to 10 drop doses in milk and is a perfect relief

[illegible]

This Valuable and Simple PILL rests for character on being the true type of a CATHARTIC,—simple, though thorough in action seldom requiring but a SINGLE PILL for a dose, or one at night and one at morning—acts without the least griping

AND CURES

Dyspepsia,
Indigestion,
Billiousness,
Loss of Appetite,
Jaundice,
Humors, &c., &c

For HEAD ACHE, when caused by a foul Stomach, they are a perfect relief.

For WORMS are a perfect remedy.

As a FAMILY PILL they have no Superior

ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE
Washington April 28, 1863

General Orders No 105

The organization of an Invalid Corps is hereby authorized.

This Corps shall consist of Companies and hereafter be thought best of Battalions

The Companies shall be made up from the following sources, viz

First By taking those officers and enlisted men of commands now in the field (whether actually present or temporarily absent) who from wounds received in action or disease contracted in the line of duty are unfit for field service but are still capable of effective garrison duty or such other light duty as may be required of an Invalid Corps— Regimental Commanders shall at once make out from information received from the Medical and Company Officers and from their own knowledge, rolls (according to the Form furnished) of the names of all the officers and enlisted men in their commands who fulfil the following conditions, viz

1 That they are unfit for active field service on account of wounds or disease contracted in the line of duty, this fact being certified by a Medical Officer in the service, after personal examination

2. That they are fit for garrison duty this fact being likewise certified by the Medical Officer as above, after personal examination

3 That they are, in the opinion of their commanding Officers, meritorious and deserving

These rolls shall be certified by the Examining Surgeon and Regimental Commander and transmitted through the regular channels of military correspondence to the Provost Marshal General of the United States.

The Regimental Commander shall enter in the column of remarks, opposite each officer's name on the roll, a statement as to the general character of the officer for intelligence industry, sobriety, and attention to duty and all intermediate commanders shall endorse thereon such facts as they may possess in the case or if they have none they shall state how far they are willing to endorse the opinion of the officer or officers making the recommendation Similar rolls shall be forwarded from time to time whenever the number of men fulfilling the conditions enumerated or the exigencies of the service may render it expedient.

Second. By taking those officers and enlisted men still in service and borne on the rolls but who are absent from duty in Hospitals or Convalescent Camps or are otherwise under the control of Medical Officers In these cases the Medical Officer in attendance shall prepare the rolls according to Form entering the names of officers and men from the same Regiment on a roll by themselves, and send them, with the certificate of the surgeon, duly signed, to the proper Regimental Commander who will forward them as hereinbefore specified subject to the same conditions and requirements. If in any case the Regimental Commander shall think an officer unfit in point of character to continue in the service of the Invalid Corps though disabled and certified by the surgeon he will state his objection in the column of remark and note the exception before signing the certificate If any officer or enlisted man now in the service but absent and beyond the reach of a Medical Officer in charge of a Hospital or Convalescent Camp desires to enter this Corps he will take the course indicated below for those who have been honorably discharged the service

Third By accepting those officers and enlisted men who have been honorably discharged on account of wounds or disease contracted in the line of duty and who desire to re-enter the service In the case of an officer application for appointment must be made to the Provost Marshal General of the United States through the officer detailed as acting Assistant Provost Marshal General of the State No application of this kind will be considered unless the following conditions are completely fulfilled

1 That the applicant produce the certificate of the surgeon of the Board of Enrollment of the District in which he resides that he is unfit for active field duty on account of wounds or disease and is not liable to draft but is fit for garrison duty

2 That he furnish evidence of honorable discharge on account of wounds or disability contracted in the line of duty

3 That he produce recommendations from the Regimental Brigade, and Division Commanders under whom he formerly served that he is worthy of being thus provided for and capable of returning adequate service to the Government If in case it should be impracticable to get this last evidence, it may having established the first two points above, satisfy the Board of Enrollment that he is deserving and present its certificate of the fact This evidence must all be obtained by the applicant and must be transmitted with his application for appointment

If there be no Acting Assistant Provost Marshal General for the State the application may be forwarded through the Adjutant General of the State who is desired to endorse thereon such facts in the military history of the applicant as he may know or as are afforded by his records, and forward the same to the Provost Marshal General of the United States Enlisted men honorably discharged on account of disability desiring to re-enlist in this Corps, will present themselves to the Board of Enrollment for the District in which they reside for examination by the surgeon thereof who shall examine them and report the result to the Board by enlistment

The Board shall then consider each case and if the applicant is found to fulfil the conditions specified below the Board shall give him certificates to that effect, viz

1 That he is unfit for service in the field
2 That he is fit for garrison duty,
3 That he is meritorious and deserving
4 That he was honorably discharged from the service

The Provost Marshal for the District shall then send the applicant with this certificate of the Board to the Acting Assistant Provost Marshal General of the State who shall procure such evidence of service and character as the records of the Company to which he belonged on file at the Headquarters of the State, may show and if satisfied that it is a meritorious case and that the man is deserving he will enlist him in accordance with such special rules as the Provost Marshal General may establish

Medical Inspectors, Surgeons in charge of Hospitals, Military Commanders and all others having authority to discharge under existing laws and regulations are forbidden to grant discharges to any men under their control who may be fit for service in the Invalid Corps

The Provost Marshal General is charged with the execution of this order and the troops organized under it will be under the control of his bureau
